

Since 1994, we have been advising owners of public and private works on the challenges raised at every stage of their building projects.

GLOBAL SOLUTION

The philosophy behind our strategy is to adapt to evolving needs, in order to provide a global solution and custom-made support at every step of your real estate project.

That is why Athegram is organized around four divisions that have their own area of expertise and are driven by our quality process.

Thanks to this cross-sectoral strategy, we are able to address projects in many fields : services, industry, health, secondary education, research, law and justice, sports, entertainment, culture, training, supply chain, security, housing,...
